Subject: FW: East Chicago's Calumet residents to host neighborhood meeting

Jaime:

Below are two articles about a community meeting I mentioned on Friday morning's conference call. Both were in the online version of the Times. I think the Attorney mentioned in the article, Chizewer, is affiliated with Northwestern's Pritzker School of Law, but prior to seeing the articles, I had never heard of this group "We the People". (It must be a newly formed group because there is no non-profit in Indiana by that name. All the non profits with similar names in Indiana have either had their status revoked by the Secretary of State, or have been administratively dissolved.)
